BIOGRAPHER OF MARGARET BOURKE-WHITE TO LECTURE AT MUSEUM

Art historian and photography critic Vicki Goldberg, author of Margaret Bourke-White, a Biography, will discuss the life and work of the famed photojournalist (1904-1971) in a lecture entitled, "Margaret Bourke-White, A Modern Photographer" at The Cleveland Museum of Art on Wednesday, March 21, at 5:45 pm. Goldberg organized the exhibition BOURKE-WHITE: A RETROSPECTIVE, which is on view at The Cleveland Museum of Art now through April 15. Using slides of Bourke-White's photographs, including many not in the exhibition, Goldberg will trace the photographer's career, which began in Cleveland, and explain how her work reflected her times.

Goldberg's criticism, a regular feature of American Photographer magazine, has also appeared in Art in America, Horizon, New York, and The New York Times Sunday Magazine.

Her lecture is free and open to the public.
